

NOTABLE FORMER PUPILS

Surname	Forename	Information
Appleton	Michael	Former player of Manchester United, Preston North End, West Bromwich Albion and current First Team Coach at Oxford United
Butters	Wes	TV and radio presenter
Caine	John	MBE, FRSA - Author (A Nest of Singing Birds) and playwright ("Mister Lowry", "Reunion" "On the Knocker")
Chamberlain Rt Rev	Neville	Bishop of Brechin from 1997–2005
Davenport	James 'Shinny'	Musician, singer songwriter
Doherty	Gillian	Author and editor of educational books for children
Fidler	Michael	Conservative MP for Bury and Radcliffe from 1970–74
Finney	Albert	Five times Academy Award-nominated English actor
Glencross CBE	David	Chief Executive of the Independent Television Commission from 1991–96
Haycocks Prof	Norman	Professor of Education at the University of Nottingham from 1946–73
Hendrick	Mark	Labour Co-operative Member of Parliament for Preston since 2000 - ?
Hessayon Dr, OBE	David	Gardener, Chairman of the British Agrochemicals Association from 1980–81
Hook	Peter	Musician, member of Joy Division & New Order
Kohn Dr	Ralph	Pharmacist
Leigh	Mike	Film director who joined the Royal Shakespeare Company as an assistant director in 1967. He later achieved lasting fame for plays such as Nuts in May and for his films including the Palme d'Or at the Cannes Film Festival and five Academy Award nominations. His latest film (2005) was Vera Drake
Lockitt	Paul	Radio newsreader, who was named commercial radio's Newsreader of the Year at the Sky/IRN Radio Awards in 2012 for the fifth year having previously won the national award in 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2011
Maguire	Eddie	Scriptwriter who wrote "Ray's A Laugh" (with Ted Ray) for the BBC

		among other successes
Matthews	Danny	Radio presenter and producer working for Piccadilly Radio, Key 103 and Century Radio
Moss	Abraham	Mayor of Manchester from 1953–54, and former President of the YHA
Pitt-Brooke CB	John	Director-General Secretariat at the Ministry of Defence since 2006
Porter CBE	James	Director General of the Commonwealth Institute from 1978–91
Price	Tom	Labour MP for Westhoughton from 1951–73
Quinn	David	A British bird artist, he won the 1987 Bird Illustrator of the Year Award of the British Birds magazine
Riley	Harold	Artist, born 1934
Sinnott	Ernest	Chairman of the South Eastern Electricity Board from 1966–74, and President of the International Project Finance Association (IPFA) from 1956–57
Spencer Capt	Richard	Conservative MP for St Helens from 1931–35
Sumner	Bernard	Musician, member of Joy Division & New Order
Wagner Prof CBE	Leslie	Vice Chancellor of Leeds Metropolitan University from 1994–2003, and Vice-Chancellor of the University of North London from 1992–93
Wilson	Ken	Writer EFL (English as a Foreign Language) books, sales of over 450,000,000 in China, born 1947